Unmatched views from this private Bishop home. You will enjoy numerous mornings and nights on the expansive back deck enjoying unobstructed mountain views while listening to the creek flow though the rear of the property. This three bedroom two bath home with a side office sits on just under ½ acre. Perfect for entertaining as the open kitchen offers an expansive island and living room. Recently built in 2004 the home offers both large front and rear yards. The lot which abuts open space offers plenty room for storage or expansion. If you are looking for a home with a view, look no further.
